

TIGER POINT HIRES NEW GENERAL MANAGER

GULF BREEZE, Fla.; June 3, 2008 – Meadowbrook Golf is pleased to announce the hiring of Chris Hendrick as the new General Manager at Tiger Point Golf and Country Club, an Emerald Coast Golf Trail entity located in Florida's Panhandle.

"I am thrilled to have been chosen to manage such a great team at Tiger Point," said Hendrick. "I look forward to working with this team daily to find the perfect blend of what we need to do in order to give our members and guests the best customer service possible."

Hendrick previously served on the Meadowbrook team from 2001-2007 in various positions including Director of Golf at ChampionsGate Golf Resort and General Manager of Walden Lake Golf Club. In 1997, he was elected to P.G.A. of America Class "A" Membership status.

"Meadowbrook is proud to have Chris back on our team and we are pleased he will be taking over as General Manager at Tiger Point," said Jaime Edmondson, Human Resources Director for Meadowbrook Golf. "Chris has a proven professional track record of success in all phases of golf course operations and we are optimistic these will translate into a great success story for Tiger Point."

Tiger Point Golf and Country Club's two championship golf courses are located along the Santa Rosa Sound and feature breathtaking waterfront views, lofty southern pines, and layouts designed for major tournament play. A Par 72, Scottish style course is located on the east side and has hosted multiple PGA tour events. A quicker-play, Par 36, nine-hole course is located on the western side of the property. The course also features a brand new clubhouse, a comprehensive practice facility featuring a driving range, two practice greens, practice bunker and chipping green. Tiger Point Golf and Country Club is a member of the Emerald Coast Golf Trail along with Scenic Hills Country Club, Shalimar Pointe Golf and Country Club, and The Club at Hidden Creek.
